

Use or Possession of Electronic Communication Devices – If a school district has adopted a policy/rule prohibiting the use or possession of electronic communication devices while on school premises, the district must provide each student enrolled in the district with a copy of that policy/rule annually according to section 118.258(2) of the state statutes.